

Arts

Stephanie Casenza

San Diego Performing Arts League executive director
$72,000

Jahja Ling

San Diego Symphony conductor
$250,000+

MARC TULE

Eve Selis

singer/songwriter, $25,000-$35,000

Most recent album: Nothing but the Truth

Best: "You work for yourself at a job you love to do."

Worst: "You work for yourself, and income is dependent on how much you work."

Nathan Sawaya

Lego master model builder, $31,000+

He won the Legoland Master Builder search last year and left a six-figure income in the legal field to accept the $31,000-per-year job at Legoland Carlsbad. After nine months, he returned to New York to work as an independent mosaic artist.

Best: "It's not about the money. I had millions of bricks. It was a dream come true to have unlimited access to my favorite medium."

Worst: "We didn't get to decide what we wanted to build. Now I enjoy building whatever I want."

Warren Gref

symphony musician (French horn), $44,000

Best: "The camaraderie and getting to play some of the greatest music ever written. And every week is a different program."

Worst: "Concerts nearly every Friday and Saturday evening, with many Sunday-afternoon performances (and some Thursday evenings), is difficult for family life. Also having to practice on days off to always be at peak performance level."

CEOs

George W. Haligowski

ITLA Capital chairman, president and CEO
$5,598,340

John B. Carrington

Websense chairman and CEO
$11,953,641

Stephen L. Baum

Sempra Energy chairman and CEO
$13,512,403

Peter V. Leparulo

Novatel Wireless CEO
$9,528,105

Bernard Zeichner

Charlotte Russe chairman
$7,581,505

Stephen Doyle

Brookfield Homes San Diego/Riverside division president
$5,572,200

Wayne R. Inouye

Gateway president and CEO
$8,409,144

David Holmes

Bob Baker Lexus car salesman
$116,000

Best: "Having a customer for life."

Worst: "Losing a customer to the competition."

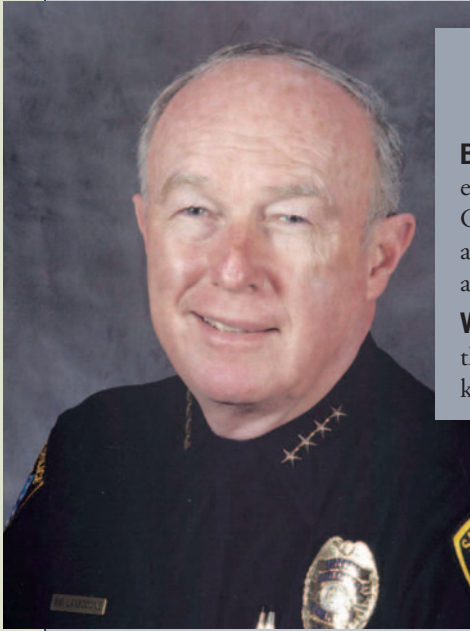

Lynn Richardson, M.S., D.V.M.
 veterinarian and exotic-animal consultant
$100,000
Best: "Being able to heal a patient and have them be able to return to their intended use or life with a happy owner."
Worst: "Recognizing there sometimes isn't anything that I can do to facilitate a successful outcome."

George Thomas
 Elvis and John Travolta
 tribute performer
$55,000

Kristen Good part-time rape crisis counselor, $10.50 an hour/$10,000 a year
Best: "Being there for someone and talking them through the process; having someone thank you for helping them take steps toward positive change."
Worst: "The feeling of helplessness and not knowing what will be in someone's future."

Sean Michaels
 American Tattoo part-time artist
$24,000
Best: "Expressing myself through art and making bodies better."
Worst: "People who want to quit after they get the first line done."

Bill Lansdowne
police chief $162,000

Best: "The ability to change law enforcement across the country. Crime is down, complaints are down, and lethal force is down. It doesn't get any better than this."

Worst: "Officers getting injured, and the domestic violence scenes where kids are involved."

San Diego County Officials

Bill Kolender
sheriff
$160,000

Glenn Wagner
medical examiner
$185,140

Greg Smith
assessor, recorder and county clerk
$167,000

Dan McAllister
treasurer and tax collector
$119,000

Richard Thome
San Diego County Office of Education assistant superintendent of human resources and technology
$142,000

San Diego City Officials

Jeff Bowman fire chief $172,785

Michael Aguirre city attorney
$173,705

Scott Peters
city councilman
$71,522

Dick Murphy
mayor of San Diego
$100,464 (resigning July 15)

P. Lamont Ewell
city manager
$223,527

Chuck Abdelnour
city clerk
$134,534 (retired June 30)

Elected and Appointed Officials

State and National Politicians

Dianne Feinstein
U.S. senator
$158,100

Alan Bersin
California education secretary
$123,255

Bill Lockyer
California attorney general
$148,750

Bob Glass

captain, Rescue 4,
San Diego City Fire Department
$81,764

Best: "Getting immediate feedback, the benefit of knowing I made a difference in someone's life."

Worst: "The tragedies we see and knowing a family will never be the same afterward."

RAMONA D'VIOLA

Kathy Nelson
life/career/business
coach
$118,000

Miscellaneous

Jamie Lippitt
speech and language teacher
$42,000

Alice Dean
first-year kindergarten teacher at Ocean Knoll Elementary
$32,000

Shu Chien
chair, department of bioengineering,
UCSD
$193,484

Claudette Garcia
Myron L Company customer service representative
$29,960

Heather Middleton wedding photographer
$35,000

Dr. Dennis Fetko, Ph.D.
"Dr. Dog" radio personality
$60,000

Anthony Acosta
Rotor Rooter plumber
$69,000

Dr. Keith Jeffers
chiropractic sports practitioner and exercise physiologist
$202,000

Tamilee Webb
fitness celebrity, star of the Buns of Steel video series
$35,000 (investment income from $100,000 video earnings)

Karen Grissom
KC the Clown
$16,800

Michael Moore
horseshoer,
Ramona Valley Forge & Farrier
$60,000
Best: “Being self-employed and interacting with wonderful creatures.”
Worst: “Getting kicked by a 1,500-pound animal.”

RAMONA DVIOLA

Steve Reid
Tip Top Meats butcher
$100,000

RAMONA D'VIOLA